Mary Ann Bucci's Home @460 Coventry Circle, Zanesville

Coventry Circle is off Dresden Rd, the house with the fence around it. Street Parking

Looking at the world through the eyes and art of one woman....Mary Ann paints favorite places to record for history or cause someone to take notice, and many are available in prints, so that everyone can enjoy the memory. In addition to prints, several of her paintings have been reproduced on pottery, church bulletins, annual reports, magnets, textiles, and on Lumi-Lite Candle tins for several years. Mary Ann's artistic metamorphosis has evolved slowly.

beginning with a great love of art in childhood, progressing through the volunteer stage of posters, signs, banners, and teaching art as an active young mother, to the present. Mary Ann has received the Woman of Distinction Award, the Ray Thomas Community Award, the Lifetime Achievement Award, and the Martin Luther King Community Award, in addition to art awards. Her future plans include writing and illustrating a book about dogs and people and how they overcome the pain of "Losing Your Best Friend". With the support and encouragement of family and friends, Mary Ann paints her world for the pure enjoyment of recording a favorite memory or moment in time.

Please plan to come to Mary Ann's home for an evening of enjoying all the paintings that she has created over the years.

THE ARTZ BUILDING

The building formerly known as the Armory now has nine artist's studios occupied. Many renovations have been made and more to come which will result in a castle-like effect which includes a bridge to cross upon entry to the building. A consignment shop is now open for any artist who wishes to participate. Karen Bogard is in charge of the shop. This is promising to be a pretty attractive place to work and/or visit. Contact Zoharo zoharo54@yahoo.com if you are interesting in acquiring a studio place in the armory.

Thurs 7pm. These meetings are open to the public. ZAAP is publishing this information because many members of ZAAP are also members of the artist colony. ZAAP is a support group for the regional artists.

ZAAP Member: Joan Quinn is now on the board of the ACZ as a representative of ZAAP. She attended the January meeting and has reported the following news:

THE WELLER VASE PROJECT

now has 23 vases on permanent display. Fifty-two vases are finished or have been delivered to the artist for painting.

THE FIRST FRIDAY ART WALK is seeking to feature monthly artists.

The month of February the featured artist will be Troy Wylie, a whimsical folk artist.

If you are interested in being a featured artist, you should contact Charles Savage at the university, www.zanesville.ohiou.edu or phone, 453-0762. (ZAAP artists are welcome to do this, the Artist colony will find a place for you to show your work for that night).

Zo reports that ARTISTS INTERESTED IN DEVELOPING THEIR OWN WEBSITE can have this done for them at a cost of $20. to $150. He also says that John Bogart will do websites for artists at no charge. You may contact Zoharo for further information.

Ohio's Appalachian Country (OAC, Inc.) has announced the dates and location of this year's Spotlight on Appalachia Ohio. March 16 and 17, Shoemaker convocation Center, Ohio Univ, Chillicothe. This is the 8th annual show and is open to leisure travelers, tour operators, group tour leaders, travel writers, senior centers and the public from Ohio and surrounding states. In addition to being a traditional travel show, "Spotlight" also focuses on the artisans and crafters of Appalachian Ohio and neighboring Appalachian states. They are looking for entertainers, artists (all mediums), crafters and first persons re-enactors to participate in the show. If applicable, you might also register for a booth as an arts group or organization. I hope you will consider this opportunity for yourself or for other artists you know who may be interested.

For more information, contact show chairperson Amy Grove, Morgan County OSU Extension Office 740-962-4909.
