

THE ZANESVILLE APPALACHIAN ARTS PROJECT
P.O. BOX 171, ZANESVILLE OH 43702
WEBSITE: www.zaapart.org
MAY 2008

MEETING: THURSDAY MAY 22 @ 5:30 PM

ARTIST OF THE MONTH: Would you like to display your art in a collective group? Contact us at www.zaapart.org.

THINK: About creating business cards for your artwork and a page for the biography notebook both displayed in the ZAAP gallery.

About the themes for future exhibits - August/Go Green, September/open, October/Surrealism and Fantasy, November/open, December/Motion. An explanation will be provided to the public about each current theme.

About paying dues ($35.00 a year).

FUNDRAISER-JULY 4TH: Please bring in your raffle items/baskets/incentives (not artwork yet) to the May meeting or to Studio 202. Also will be looking for more detailed proposals for fundraising activities that will be presented in July. Each artist presenting a workshop/activity will give $25.00 to ZAAP and may charge whatever is appropriate to the public for supplies and services rendered.

For more info: Susan Stubbins - 453-5819 or Debbie Beckert - 452-7991. "More than a place, a home built from love is where the heart dwells." Help us maintain our home.

THANK YOU: To Dan Towning, Elnyr Polchow, Kathy Thomas, Loren Roper, Paul Emory, Mike and Kathy Seiler, Vincent Gebhart, Wilma Haven, Nancy Nash, Shirley Perrine and Susan Stubbins for dedicating pieces to the Groundhog Auction.

To the artists who participated in the next stage of VIP (Vase In Place) and decorated a 7' vase to be auctioned in the future.

To Karen Bogard for creating a coupon with percentages off her work as encouragement to members to volunteer their time in the gallery

To Jim Perrine, husband to member Shirley, who created 3 lovely graduating boxes we will paint and use for display.

NEW BUSINESS: Member Kathy Jenkins has proposed her plan to use the downstairs of the gallery for occasional classes in basic scrapbooking, tole painting, and activities in arts and crafts. It will be free rental space and free utility with 15% of purchases of her items and payments of class fees going to ZAAP. It will strengthen her business and help increase public interest and visitations in the ZAAP gallery. Activities would not begin until the end of July 2008. Any discussion can be held during the May meeting. Wonderful idea!

SEOSA (South East Ohio Symphony Assoc.) will be having a fundraiser at the Zanesville Art Center with a wine-tasting and incorporating the "Animal" exhibit. They would like to also incorporate local artists in this event - have any ideas? Contact Diane Carter - zaapmail@yahoo.com or 453-2031.

We would like to have a Poem-Food For Thought (PFFT) at the end of our meetings. Please sign up for each monthly meeting as you do for the monthly featured artist by (again) contacting Diane Carter at the above e-mail or phone #.

10th ANNUAL CROOKSVILLE ART WALK: Saturday, June 14, 2008 from 4-8pm. Free admission and a lovely drive through the countryside. Any questions call member Alma Hoopes @ (740) 342-1379.

APOLOGY: For the straight-forward newsletter. Maria Fink will be back soon to use her flair in organizing this info more creatively.

Board Member: Diane Carter (Director), Debbie Beckert (Secretary), Susan Nash (Treasurer), Maria Fink (Newsletter design), Karen Bogard, Kay Israel, Gloria Gross, Cheryl Randles, Charles Savage, Susan Stubbins, Marilyn Westgerdes.
