JUNE MEETING: THURSDAY JUNE 26 @ 5:30PM

We would still like a closing poem for each meeting. Please let a board member know before the meeting and we will leave time for you.

Reminder: Please bring art and items for our July fundraiser auction and raffle. Please remember to pick up your art from the "Animal" exhibit.

We hope to raise enough money to pay our rent for the next year (and then some) and to let the community know more about ZAAP.

COMING UP: Y-Knot Project initiated by Charlie Kearns and Diane Carter in conjunction with ZAAP, Artist Colony and others will have red, white and blue ribbons to tie on the Y-Bridge on July 4th. Some ribbons will have wishes, prayers and hopes written on them. More info at meeting. Watch for our WHIZ press conference on June 24th.

Featured artist at the Art Walk will be photographer Phillip Turner at Studio G - 42 No.4th St.

ZAAP Gallery will be open for The Taste of Zanesville on July 16th from 5:30 to 8pm.

Earth to Art is also on that date on the John McIntire Library grounds. Diane Carter is honored to be a judge this year and ZAAP members Gary Graham and Toni Leland are both coordinators for this project.

Other business: - Kathy Jenkins is moving into our downstairs. Paul Emory has installed a utility sink and we look forward to seeing the progress.

-Many thanks to ZAAP artists that helped with the Vase Project. They will be auctioned to the public on July 17th from 4-8pm at the Mitzel Building by Ron Bucci.

-The Visual And Performing Arts Summer Honors Institute came by the gallery. ZAAP members Charles Savage, Marilyn Westgerdes and Wilma Haven are involved in the fine project.

-Congratulations to the Life Drawing group and their first successful exhibit at the Mitzel Building. Interested? Monday evenings 6-9p in the basement of the Mitzel Building next to Muddy Misers.

- Our gallery was in the Times Recorder with Paul Emory and on WHIZ with VAPA tour.

-And I'll bet Debbie Beckert is still looking for a few volunteers for sitting in the gallery.

-Thanks to those who have donated their time, items and energy to our gallery.

The Board - Debbie Beckert, Karen Bogard, Diane Carter, Gloria Gross, Kay Israel, Susan Nash, Cheryl Randles, Charles Savage.
