

ZANESVILLE APPALACHIAN ARTS PROJECT

OCTOBER NEWSLETTER

Hello All!

Old News:

The October meeting went well - In September we had no nominations for ZAAP officers so it was a "selection" not an election. Diane Carter will remain the director with Debbie Beckert as the co-director (and she will then be the next director). Karen Bogard is the secretary and Susan Stubbins (and Diane Carter) will handle the treasurer's position. Shelley Tolliver has joined the board and Sue Hall has kindly taken on the food part of our events.

Thank you one and all The Annual Ohio Exhibit at the Zanesville ART Center had its opening on Saturday. The following members were juried into the show: Leona Fellers, Toni Leland, Mark Mitchell, Vicki Mitchell, Mike Seiler, Nancy Nash, Roberta Sass-Loucks, Yan Sun and Dan Towning. Dan received an award for his wonderful honeysuckle weaving.

Congratulations to all of you The Halloween Party organized by Karen Bogard at the Freight (Fright?) Shops was fun! Those of you not attending missed the sucking of Skittles up straws! Thanks to Karen, Kevin, Brooke and the Randles for all their work.

Any artists who had work at "The Theme is Pottery" event and needs to pick it up, please contact Alma Hoopes.

New News:

KEY BOX NOW AT PAUL EMORY'S GALLERY. You no longer have to go to Clossman's for keys, they are in a lock box located in the doorway of Paul's gallery. Clossman's will keep a set in case of emergencies. Any questions, please call Diane at 453-2031.

Shelley Tolliver suggested we check with a senior's group in order to find sitters for the gallery - we are checking into this to see how viable that is. We would like to keep the gallery open more often, though that might only be for the holiday season and then next spring.

David Mitzel announced that Diane Carter's vase will be loaned to the Ohio Governor's living quarters (manse is no longer politically correct....). It seems they already had a pig from Cincinnati and should have a vase from Zanesville - the governor agreed. Thanks to Dr. Paul and Linda Brown for bringing this to his attention.

Check out these four websites if you are considering selling in a virtual gallery - Artspan.com, Etsy.com, ShanaLogic.com, Yessy.com. Kathy Thomas is listed with Yessy.com and passed on this info.

Please join us for First Friday when the Ronna Bucci and Dr. Charles Dietz Artist Award will be presented at 7PM in our gallery. Also Mary Ann Bucci will be the Featured Artist this month

OUR NEXT MEETING WILL BE ON NOVEMBER 27 AT 6 PM See you there!
