August theme...Local Landmarks
the Mural Mosaic of the Y-Bridge
Will Be up in the Gallery !

The Gallery will be open on First Friday August 7th. 6to9 PM

The Howard Chandler Christy Celebration went very well and was enjoyed by all that came. Jay and Melodie Hayes offered their guests a wonderful evening of art, music, history and friends. We thank them for asking us to join them in this delightful event!

July's First Friday Gallery opening had another grand turnout. Alma Hoopes was our Featured Artist with her many beautiful Flags and other paintings. Check out the website to see all the artists works.

The gallery was open for the Taste Of Zanesville, There were many who came through, and several who purchased things.
Another good night Downtown !

Roberta Sass Loucks son, Jeremy Levine and her daughter-in-law Robin Levine, and the home that her son designed for the two of them are on the cover of the July issue of Dwell Magazine. Roberta's son is an architect, and the article about his beautiful and innovative work is included in this issue. Also,, Dwell Magazine can be found in some local stores, and the article appears on the Dwell Magazine website under current issues.

Another bit of news is that Roberta won the Best of Show award at the South Eastern Ohio Watermedia Society exhibition at the Zanesville Art Museum.

A Plein Air workshop with Christopher Leeper will be given July 31st thru August 2nd . Sign up at the Zanesville Art Museum. Participants can use either oils or acrylics. This workshop will explore the Zanesville landscape.

The ZAAP booth for the Y-Bridge ARts Festival has been filling up. 7 artists will be selling their work in the booth.

The Mosaic Mural posters will be for sale there also !

Don't forget to stop by Dan Townings Art Studio, 605 Putnam Ave, Zanesville.

July 26th, 6 to 9 PM

For the Art Opening, to say "so long!" to the Smiling Zebra Studio. Featuring Diane Carter and Cheryl Randles

Pick up of art from the Howard Chandler Christie Event will be at the ZAAP meeting the 23rd.

Pick up of art from the July Show will not be until 1 week after our ZAAP meeting.

Drop off of the Local Land Marks Theme will be at that time.

Confused....we have an extra week this month to keep the gallery open. yahoo!
yippee!

This newsletter is also the announcement that Debbie Beckert is now the director of ZAAP due to Diane Carter's move to Florida. Diane will never be able to convey to the membership how much this group and their diverse personalities have filled her life and heart. Many Many thanks for all you have done for this community group and for art itself.

See you soon !
