

The Zanesville Appalachian Arts Project

September Newsletter

Meeting is Thursday, September 24th.

6:00pm at the ZAAP Gallery

Pick up and drop off art, the 24th -27th, 1-5 PM

Our October Featured Artist will be Karen Bogard of Lilly Glass works

The theme for October is "Fall for Ya" Karen Bogard will definitely have a treat for us all, at the First Friday Art Walk. She loves this season. The gallery will be full of fun and festivities, wonderful art, and music by the Brady Israel Trio.

Speaking at our meeting Thursday.....Julie Dansereau-Tackett, the new Museum Educator at the Zanesville Museum of Art. She wants to forge stronger bonds with the thriving artistic community and give a brief description of some of her ideas for more interaction between the museum and local artists.

David said "I've finally been able to update the majority of the website". It looks great David! We Thank You, for all the work you do, to make us look so great!
Check it out..... www.zaapart.org

We want to thank all the artists who donated their paintings, their time in planning, and setting up the fundraiser, being there to help with the final bid, and even purchasing some of these amazing paintings. Thank you for your participation. Every single square was outstanding by its self. If you didn't make it to the gallery during the fundraiser and the final bid... there are some, fantastic paintings, that can be purchased for $20.

We are making Ornaments for the Christmas tree. You can pick up a glass ornaments to paint or fill, or make up your own creation. We will hang them on the tree to sell.

Proceeds will go to ZAAP. Great Idea Sue Hall!

ZAAP members Anita Gladman, Gary Graham, Sue Hall, and Arthur Kettner WON RIBBONS at the National Ceramic Museum Show on Saturday, Sept, 12th. Way to go!

Thank you Rhonda McGee for making the Big ZAAP Book. It gives all the members info. Please check your information in the book and correct anything that has changed, (phone, email, address ect...) The book also has information on how the gallery is run. This should answer any questions that might come up for our gallery sitters, and for sales. We have many long time members, just how long has it been? Please put in the date that you became a member of ZAAP.

At our last board meeting we put together ideas for a "Welcome Letter". It gives all the guide lines for our organization. It's in the Big ZAAP Book. We will be emailing one to you soon. Please print or save it, to refer back to if needed. Rhonda McGee put this together and finished it for us .Thank You again!

We asked for several positions to be filled by members at the last meeting. Rhonda McGee volunteered for the vice director. Kay Israel will keep our Post Cards and Membership cards in the local businesses. Janet Taylor-Lehman will help with any typing needs. Kathy Jenkins offered to pick up the balloons and ACZ maps each month. If you have a desire to help keep our gallery running smoothly, PLEASE let us know!

Thank you Shelly for the Featured Artist letter. It will be in the Big ZAAP Book.

Shelley Tolliver will be at the Rambo Memorial Health Center and a coinciding show at Ditty's Downtown Deli on First Friday This will be her debut event! The Rambo Memorial Health Center will be hosting her show. Most of her work will be public for the first time, including sketches based on Rich's story "The Cowboy". Steve Spires will be providing the entertainment. Ditty's Downtown Deli on South 4th Street is sharing in her public artistic debut. Many of her theatrical sketches - both published and unpublished will be on hand.

Dear Crafter or Artist,

On behalf of the Clay Valley Foundation and the 2009 Fall Fest Committee we are extending an invitation for you to participate in the Fall Fest 2009.

This year, the Fall Fest will be celebrated at the Crooksville Village Park on China St, next to the Ceramics football stadium on Saturday, October 10. The fee for a 10' x 10' location in the marketplace will be $25. There is limited electricity available, so you MUST state your need for electricity ahead of time. You may set up on Friday, October 9. The event begins at 9 am Saturday and ends at 11 pm. You may stay as late as you wish. There will be a beer garden, food, games, contests, a parade, chili cook-off, pie baking contest, talent show, and evening entertainment by a live band, Three Alarm.

Please complete a registration form available at the Village of Crooksville Municipal office located at 98 S Buckeye St, Crooksville, OH 43731. Or call the Village Administrator, Kristi Seales at 740-982-2656 to register by phone. The Village offices are open 8 am to 4 pm, Monday thru Friday.

Thank you for your interest and support. We are looking forward to another wonderful Fall Fest!
Sincerely,

Mayor Dennis Harvey

*Recently Yabo sent out a letter to us about his portrait classes, and he sent a thank you note attached. As he thought, a few more names came to him:

Bob "Yabo" Wilson wanted to send out a special thank you to: Jerry Westgerdes, and Yan Sun.

Jerry had both of my sons in his art class at OUZ. This past summer Jerry asked me to do a one man show in the library of OUZ and speak to his students.

Thank You so much Jerry, this was an honor to me.

*I took a class from Yan Sun; it was amazing how fast he is with his art, like Linda Gall, Yan Sun has showed me a looser style that is still beautiful.

Yan Sun asked me to be part of his art show in the library of Muskingum College (University). This display is up now.

My many Thanks go out to these Great Men.

Thank you Bob! For the classes you have been giving us!

Enjoy the Weekend and See you Thursday!

Debbie Beckert, Karen Bogard, Diane Carter, Gloria Gross, Sue Hall, Kay Israel, Rhonda McGee, Cheryl Randles, Susan Stubbins, Shelley Tolliver, Marilyn Westgerdes.
