The theme is open

Our November Featured Artist will be John Taylor-Lehman

First Friday is November 6th. I can't believe I am writing this date already.

John Taylor-Lehman will be the featured artist for this month, and if you haven't seen John's work, you have to come to the gallery for his opening. You will be delighted with his thought provoking art. The Brady Israel Trio will warm us up with their cool Jazz, and there is always lots of friends to see.

The tree will be up for November 6th First Friday, with the ornaments that you are making for sale. Several have been brought in. Be sure to drop yours off before November.

Oct. 16 Friendly Hills Grange Camp and Conference Center will host a Paint-Out.

Please bring Friends, and supplies.

We will gather at 10:00 am, light breakfast provided. After a brief introduction to the Camp, we will paint. Lunch can be purchased for $5.00 if you like, at 12:00

At 3:00 we will meet in the dining hall to share what we have done. Please call Crystal at 452-0016 if you are planning to come, just for an idea of # for meal.

Then, on Oct. 18, 12-5, artists are invited to share works at no charge at Our Open House at the Camp.

Then starting on Tuesday, Oct. 20, 1:00 p.m. we will start a new session of Friends, Art, and Fun, each Tuesday through November 17. Bring projects you would like to get started, or finished.

Student artists, grades 6-8 and 9-12 from Muskingum, Coshocton or Perry Counties will participate in an art show. The artwork will be displayed in the Carnegie Wing Gallery of the John McIntire Library. A public Opening Reception sponsored by the Library will be held in the gallery on Saturday, November 14th, 2009 from 2-4pm.

Prizes will be awarded for the best work at that time.

The Freight Station at 3rd and Market St, will be open for the Art walk, Novembers 6th, First Friday. There will be several other shops open. I hear that Cheryl Randles will be opening her new studio "MY Place". Marilyn Knell and her son-in-law Arron, who is the glass blowing artist at the Works in Newark, will be in one of the shops. There will be entertainment, music etc. Watch for the flyers that will be coming out!

The Artist Colony of Zanesville is looking for some volunteers to help with a few things. They need someone to pick up the yellow and purple balloons at Der Ver Ber on First Fridays and take them to the Welcome center. They are also asking for volunteers to distribute each month's ACZ news letter a couple weeks in advance of First Friday. If you are interested please contact Marilyn Knell or Debbie Beckert

Drop off for the Next ZAAP show will be... 1 week after the ZAAP meeting (extra week this month).

No Need to make out 2 wavier Slips for your art, just make 1 and tape it to the back of you work. David Yocum will make a list while he takes the pictures for the website, and then email your info to Rhonda McGee who is making the title cards for us. Thanks you guys!

There are a few spots open for gallery sitting. Take a peek at the calendar that will be coming your way.

See you at the meeting on the 22nd.

Debbie Beckert, Karen Bogard, Diane Carter, Gloria Gross, Sue Hall, Kay Israel, Rhonda McGee, Cheryl Randles, Susan Stubbins, Shelley Tolliver, Marilyn Westgerdes, David Yocum.
